Entrepreneurship: Assignment Questions

WEEK 9 – LECTURES 41, 42, 43, 44 and 45

Course Modules 10 (Part) and Module 11

Beyond Founders and Founder-Families (Part) and India as a Start-up Nation

Q1) For Founder to CEO transition to be successful in a start-up, the CEO must possess, beyond, technical and business skills:

a. Ability to invest in the start-up b. Ability to quit at any time
c. Cultural skills and fit
d. Constantly questioning attitude

Q2) In terms of ensuring good corporate governance, the start-up must have the following from the very beginning:

a. A board comprising independent experts and leaders, including the founder and co-founder
b. An organisation structure
c. A recruitment procedure
d. A hire and fire policy Q3) One of the important characteristics even if for an all-powerful CEOs is to have the

a. The humility of advocacy
b. The consensus from all stakeholders
c. Both (a) and (b)
d. Neither (a) nor (b)

Q4) Global concerns on climate change can lead to new start-up opportunities in:

a. Medtech
b. Edtech
c. Cleantech
d. Fintech

Q5) Which of the following is NOT a pillar of the Global Entrepreneurship Index?

a. Risk Acceptance
b. Technology Absorption
c. Product Innovation
d. Financial Sustainability

Q6) According to the 2019 University Entrepreneurship Index, Indian start-ups have to do a lot more in the following area:

a. Biopharmaceutical technology
b. Retail and e-commerce
c. Finance
d. Travel and hospitality

Q7) Structurally, the Japanese industrial ecosystem enables technological innovation:

a. In select pockets of the value chain
b. All across the value chain
c. Only where large companies need d. Only by large firms

Q8) As a global trend, while the success in start-up will lead to exceptional rewards, start-ups do face:

a. Little or no failure rate
b. High failure rate
c. Governmental bailout even in failure
d. Bailout by banks even in failure

Q9) Which strategic approach is associated with cost-competitiveness for start-ups?

a. Innovative Technologists
b. Creative Marketers
c. Operations Leaders
d. Collaborative Networking

Q10) Which pillar of the Global Entrepreneurship Index focuses on entrepreneurs' ability to enter global markets?

a. High Growth
b. Internationalization
c. Competition
d. Risk Capital